NOTES AND EXPLANATIONS

Work on the Gleason record was begun nearly thirty years ago, and has continued intermittently since then. It is based on a variety of family documents, conversations and correspondence with numerous descendants, personal research in court houses, cemeteries, and elsewhere in Ashtabula Co., Ohio, Litchfield Co., Conn., and Berkshire and Hampden Counties, Mass., and on a considerable amount of published material available in the Western Reserve Historical Society Library in Cleveland. Unfortunately opportunity for on-the-spot research of vital, probate, and land records was limited. No doubt considerable additional information is still to be found in these sources. However, this book is an attempt to preserve in printed form what material is now available, much of which might be lost if obliged to wait until a complete search of the records should become possible. At the time work was started several members of the older generations of the family were still living and had valuable data to contribute. Among these were Will Gleason, son of Elijah and Betsey Davis Gleason, and Thornton Prentice, their grandson. Dozens of descendants in all branches have contributed greatly to the record by sending data on their families and related branches, and this help is greatly appreciated.

Nearly 900 descendants of Elijah Gleason have been reported. Several branches of the family have been lost, among them the Marbles, the Ridgemans, the Bulls, and several of the Prentice line, and a number of families, although residence is known, have failed to reply to requests for data. Thus there are no doubt a great many more descendants of Elijah Gleason, now unknown. It may be interesting to note that Turner H. Gleason, aged 89, has the distinction of being the oldest living descendant of Elijah Gleason listed in this record, and that Benjamin Joseph Whitman, born in June 1960 is the youngest.

The following explanation of the number sequence may assist those who are not familiar with genealogical records in the location and tracing of individuals. All descendants listed of Elijah Gleason are completely indexed. Each individual bears the same number wherever he is listed, as a child with parentheses, as an adult without. Thus two number sequences run together, one at the extreme left for heads of families, the other indented and in parentheses for children. For descent or ancestry follow these sequences forward or backward. For example: The index may list an individual on page 61; his number may be found to be (584) and his father's number 316. Follow the indented number sequence backward until (316) is located on page 36, child of number 164. Follow back until (164) is found on page 21, child of number 72, and so on back through several generations to number 1, Elijah Gleason.

SIXTH GENERATION IN AMERICA

1. ELIJAH GLEASON (son of Ariel and Lucy Green Gleason) (See page 90)

Born probably 1778 or 79 (1850 and 1860 census records list him as 71 and 81 respectively) probably in or near Canaan, Conn. His son Will said Enfield, Conn., but land records indicate his father, Ariel, was of Canaan, Conn. by 1772 at least. In the 1880 census, which gives parents' birthplaces, most of the sons and daughters of Elijah Gleason list Mass. as his birthplace, but the 1850 and 1860 records (at which time Elijah was living and may be assumed to have supplied the information) give Conn. A grandson, Thornton Prentice, reported that his mother told him that her grandfather (Ariel, father of Elijah) lived near the Conn.-Mass. line with a farm in one state and a mill in the other. The 1790 census lists Ariel Gleason in Litchfield, Conn. Died in Harpersfield, Ohio in 1863, aged 84 (according to Will Gleason, his last living son). A court record of May 22, 1863, as published in the "Ashtabula Sentinel", indicates that Elijah Gleason was dead by then. No record of his death was found in the Ashtabula Sentinel for 1862, 1863, or 1864. He is buried with wives and others of his family in the Harpersfield, Ohio cemetery, in a long row covered with myrtle, with only markers, no inscriptions. (Reported by son Will)

Married (1) probably in Berkshire Co., Mass. and probably before 1800 Cynthia Johnson, daughter of Jared and Rebecca Johnson of Sheffield, Mass. (See page 94) The 1830 census lists her as between 40 and 50 years old, so she was probably born in the very early 1780s (since the first child was born in 1800). She died probably Sept. 1838 (Major Custin's Bible, in which entries are greatly confused)

Married (2) probably within a few months unless the 1838 date of death for Cynthia is a mistake or a misreading, Betsey Davis, daughter of Ora and ----- Proper Davis. She was born in Montgomery Co., N.Y. Nov. 10, 1817 (or 1818), died Aug. 30, 1881 Harpersfield, Ohio, of typhoid fever.

Little is known about Elijah Gleason before he came to Harpersfield, Ashtabula Co., Ohio. As indicated by the places of birth of his children he lived in Sheffield and New Marlboro, Berkshire Co., Mass. The 1800 census lists him in Sheffield, Mass., 1 male and 1 female. It is not known exactly when he came to Ohio. The Gleason Gen. gives both 1818 and 1820 as dates of removal to Ohio, and states that he first came to Ohio with his brother Enoch and lived at various times in Painesville, Cleveland, Warrensville, and Harpersfield. Will Gleason, the youngest and last living son, said that his father went to Cleveland, later rented land in Warrensville from the Shakers, and came to Harpersfield probably about 1822. A newspaper article of 1939, honoring Will Gleason, states that Elijah Gleason came to Cleveland in 1820 and to Harpersfield in 1822, that he cleared a 100 acre farm, much of the timber being stacked and ready to burn. According to "Names of Women Who Were Born in the Western Reserve or Came to it. Prior to 1840" Cynthia Gleason, wife of Elijah, came to Harpersfield in 1821 from Sheffield, Mass., as did daughters, Caroline and Lucy Gleason Custin. The obituary of son Alanson Gleason indicates that he came in 1821, also. A land record in Berkshire Co., Mass. indicates that Elijah Gleason of Sheffield, Mass. sold land in Sheffield on Brush Hill in June 1821. Thus it would appear that the move of the family to Ohio was made in 1821 and that settlement was first made in Harpersfield. Therefore, if reports of his having previously been in Cuyahoga Co. are correct, he evidently did not settle his family there but returned for them in 1821. His older brother Enoch, according to Johnson's "History of Cuyahoga Co." came to Warrensville in 1816 and he is listed in Warrensville, Ohio in the 1820 census. Elijah Gleason is not listed in Cuyahoga or Ashtabula Co. in 1820. In 1827 Elijah and Lewis Gleason (his oldest son) purchased in Ashtabula Co., Ohio Lot No. 53, 100 acres, of the executors of Gideon Granger, and this property was settled at his death. All census records list Elijah Gleason as a farmer.

A letter from Thornton Prentice (a grandson) in 1935, in which he gives to a niece a brief record of the Gleason family, says "Grandfather Gleason was fairly well off, not rich, but had a good farm, cattle, horses, etc., and his family always had a good living and what was considered in those days a good chance for school." It is not known whether Elijah Gleason himself could read or write; however in a deed of 1821 he signed by making his mark. Cynthia Gleason evidently was better educated as letters of 1824 and 1827 written to her by a brother and a sister are quite well written.

Children of Elijah and Cynthia Johnson Gleason:

- (2) Lewis born 1800 Sheffield, Mass., died of diabetes Feb. 2, 1879 Harpersfield, Ohio, aged 78. He was unmarried; lived in Harpersfield, and is listed as a farmer and shoemaker.
- (3) Lucy born Feb. 3, 1802 Sheffield, Mass.
- (4) Hiram " Apr. 10-15, 1804 probably Sheffield, Mass.
- (5) Elijah " prob. 1806 or 1807 Mass.
- (6) Alanson " July 18 or 19, 1811 Sheffield, Mass.
- (7) Caroline " ab. 1814 New Marlborough, Mass. (death record) Unmarried.
died Mar. 11, 1886 of consumption at the home of Dighton Gleason in Harpersfield.
- (8) Chauncey C. born Apr. 10, 1819 Sheffield, Mass.
- (9) Andrew The 1830 census lists a son under 5 years old. Died in childhood before his mother.

Children of Elijah and Betsey Davis Gleason:

- (10) Polly Celestia born Oct. 3, 1839 Harpersfield, Ohio
- (11) ----- possibly a child here, died in infancy (Reported in a letter from Thornton Prentice.
- (12) Laura born 1846 Harpersfield.
- (13) Wallace " 1847 " Died Harpersfield 1865 aged 18.
- (14) James Willie" Mar. 8, 1860 Harpersfield, Ohio, having the unusual distinction of being born when his father was over 80 and his oldest half brother about 60 years old.

SEVENTH GENERATION IN AMERICA

3. LUCY GLEASON

Born Feb. 3, 1802 Sheffield, Mass. Died Jan. 16, 1880 Harpersfield, Ohio of consumption. Buried in Harpersfield Cemetery with husband.

Married July 9, 1829 at Harpersfield Major (name, not title) Custin, son of Benjamin and Rosannah Lamont Custin. He was born Mar. 26, 1805 in New York, prob. in or near Schoharie Co. He died Feb. 18, 1879 of liver complaint in Harpersfield, Ohio.

The death notice in the "Ashtabula Sentinel" says of Major Custin "Mr. Custin came to this county when only four or five years old. For the past fifty years he has been living at Rogers Corners in Harpersfield. He was an industrious man and a good father, doing his duty as a citizen all his life. At one time he was deputy sheriff under Prentice, deceased." The home in Harpersfield burned down some years ago. He was a wheelwright and wagon maker. Of Lucy Gleason the death notice says "Deceased was one of the early settlers of Harpersfield." Major Custin's name appears frequently in Ashtabula Co. land records, transactions involving parts of Lot No. 55, the first purchase being made with his brother Robert in 1828.

4. HIRAM A. GLEASON

Born Apr. 10-15, 1804 prob. Sheffield, Mass. Died 1884-5 prob. Chagrin Falls, Ohio.

Buried with wife in Evergreen Hill Cemetery, Chagrin Falls.

Married Nov. 10, 1825 Warrensville, Ohio Hannah Maria Hubbell, dau. of Jedediah and Hannah Turner Hubbell from Vergennes, Vt. to Newburgh and Warrensville, Ohio. She was born in Vt. Mar. 27, 1809 and came to Ohio with her parents in 1812. She died in Chagrin Falls in 1879 and is bu. with her husband.

I have not found when Hiram Gleason went to Cuyahoga Co. The marriage record 1825 lists him as of Harpersfield, Ashtabula Co., where his parents lived. A grandson, Charles Ford, reports that for a wedding trip they traveled seven miles on horseback (one horse) to the farm of a cousin, Jerome Gleason, in Warrensville. He also reports that Hiram Gleason was a stone mason, and that he had a small farm about $\frac{1}{2}$ mile from Chagrin Falls. They went to Chagrin Falls about 1842-44.

5. ELIJAH GLEASON

Born ab. 1806 or 1807 prob. Sheffield, Mass. Died Harpersfield, Ohio after 1880 (both he and wife are listed in the 1880 census) Both bu. Harpersfield. Married Oct. 1834 Bersheba (Basha) Gunn. She was born ab. 1812 N. Y., died some time after 1880. Her parents were of E. Ashtabula, where they had a tavern.

He was a farmer and lived in Harpersfield. "Memorial to the Pioneer Women of the Western Reserve" says that Mrs. "Barsheba" Gleason, wife of Elijah was an excellent manager and homekeeper. It quotes one of the children as saying, "However did father manage to pay for this farm and support his family at the same time? For he had to clear the land, chopping down the trees, and burning them into charcoal, draw that off and exchange it for iron, and then turn that in for payments on the land, besides paying taxes. Nowadays it is all we can do to make a living and pay our taxes with the farm all cleared and paid for."

8. CHAUNCEY C. GLEASON

Born Apr. 10, 1819 Sheffield, Mass. Died of heart disease Feb. 11, 1890 in Geneva, Ohio. Bu. Evergreen Cemetery, Geneva with wife.

Married Sept. 30, 1884 Newbury, Geauga Co., Ohio Lucy D. Potter of Madison, O. dau. of Arthur Potter. The Potters were Mormons, prob. of Kirtland, O. before moving to Madison. She was born June 15, 1819 Madison, Ohio, died Aug. 3, 1907, Van Wert, Ohio.

Chauncey Gleason settled in Geneva, Ohio. The 1850 census lists him as a tavern keeper, later ones as a fruit merchant. His fruit store was established in 1845 in Geneva. A history of Ashtabula Co. lists him as a grocer who also did a jobbing trade in fruits, oysters, game, etc. Here he is listed as a director of the First National Bank in Geneva. An item from a family scrap book says he had lived at Unionville where he had a hotel at which the stage coaches changed horses, his hotel being for the accommodation of travelers who made their way by the old stage coach route.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be recorded to ensure the integrity of the financial data. This includes not only sales and purchases but also expenses and income. The document further states that regular audits are necessary to verify the accuracy of these records and to identify any discrepancies or errors. It also mentions that proper record-keeping is essential for tax purposes and for providing a clear picture of the company's financial health to stakeholders.

The second part of the document outlines the procedures for handling customer orders and inquiries. It stresses the need for prompt and courteous service to all customers, regardless of the size of their order. The document provides a step-by-step guide for processing orders, from initial contact to delivery and follow-up. It also includes a section on how to handle complaints and returns, emphasizing the importance of listening to the customer's concerns and resolving them as quickly as possible. The document concludes by stating that excellent customer service is a key factor in the success of any business.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud.

Secondly, the document outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data. It describes the process of gathering information from different sources and how this data is then processed to identify trends and patterns.

Thirdly, the document discusses the role of technology in modern data analysis. It highlights how advanced software tools and algorithms have significantly improved the speed and accuracy of data processing.

Finally, the document concludes by emphasizing the need for continuous improvement and innovation in data analysis techniques. It suggests that as technology evolves, so too must the methods used to analyze data.

In summary, the document provides a comprehensive overview of the current state of data analysis and offers valuable insights into the challenges and opportunities ahead.

The following table provides a detailed breakdown of the data collected over the past year, categorized by region and product type.

Table 1: Regional Sales Data (Q1-Q4 2023)

This table shows the sales volume for each region across the four quarters. The data indicates a steady increase in sales across all regions, with the highest growth observed in the North and South regions.

Table 2: Product Sales Data (Q1-Q4 2023)

This table details the sales volume for each product line. The data shows that the most popular products are those in the electronics and home goods categories, which account for a significant portion of total sales.

Table 3: Customer Demographics Data (Q1-Q4 2023)

This table provides information on the age and gender distribution of customers. The data suggests that the primary customer base is composed of young adults and middle-aged individuals, with a slightly higher proportion of females.

The first part of the paper deals with the general principles of the theory of the evolution of man. It is shown that the evolution of man is a process which has been going on since the beginning of time, and that it is a process which is still going on at the present time. The author shows that the evolution of man is a process which is governed by the laws of natural selection, and that it is a process which is governed by the laws of heredity.

The second part of the paper deals with the question of the origin of man. It is shown that the origin of man is a question which has been the subject of much speculation, and that it is a question which has been the subject of much controversy. The author shows that the origin of man is a question which can be answered by the study of the fossil remains of man, and that it is a question which can be answered by the study of the fossil remains of man.

The third part of the paper deals with the question of the development of man. It is shown that the development of man is a process which has been going on since the beginning of time, and that it is a process which is still going on at the present time. The author shows that the development of man is a process which is governed by the laws of natural selection, and that it is a process which is governed by the laws of heredity.

The fourth part of the paper deals with the question of the future of man. It is shown that the future of man is a question which has been the subject of much speculation, and that it is a question which has been the subject of much controversy. The author shows that the future of man is a question which can be answered by the study of the fossil remains of man, and that it is a question which can be answered by the study of the fossil remains of man.

The fifth part of the paper deals with the question of the present of man. It is shown that the present of man is a question which has been the subject of much speculation, and that it is a question which has been the subject of much controversy. The author shows that the present of man is a question which can be answered by the study of the fossil remains of man, and that it is a question which can be answered by the study of the fossil remains of man.

The sixth part of the paper deals with the question of the past of man. It is shown that the past of man is a question which has been the subject of much speculation, and that it is a question which has been the subject of much controversy. The author shows that the past of man is a question which can be answered by the study of the fossil remains of man, and that it is a question which can be answered by the study of the fossil remains of man.

The seventh part of the paper deals with the question of the future of man. It is shown that the future of man is a question which has been the subject of much speculation, and that it is a question which has been the subject of much controversy. The author shows that the future of man is a question which can be answered by the study of the fossil remains of man, and that it is a question which can be answered by the study of the fossil remains of man.

The eighth part of the paper deals with the question of the present of man. It is shown that the present of man is a question which has been the subject of much speculation, and that it is a question which has been the subject of much controversy. The author shows that the present of man is a question which can be answered by the study of the fossil remains of man, and that it is a question which can be answered by the study of the fossil remains of man.

ANCESTRY OF ELIJAH GLEASON

1. THOMAS GLEASON

He was born about 1607 possibly in Sulgrave, co. Northampton, Eng. The Gleason Genealogy states that it is not improbable that he was the son of Thomas Leeson of Brington and grandson of Thomas of Sulgrave, though no positive knowledge of his birthplace or parentage has been found. In English records the name is invariably spelled without the G, and also in the earliest records in Watertown and Cambridge. Among the variations in spelling are Leson, Leeson, Glesen, Glezen, Gleeson, etc. Similarity of early spelling and of Christian names leads to the belief that Thomas of Watertown may have belonged to a numerous family in Northampton Co., Eng. The name is first mentioned in America when Thomas Gleason took the oath of allegiance in Watertown, Mass. June 1, 1652. The early records contain no entries of consequence concerning him, and from the little that can be gathered it appears that he was of somewhat arbitrary disposition, which not infrequently got him into trouble with the town authorities on minor matters of conduct. In 1658 he moved to Charlestown, and on Dec. 3rd he leased from Captain Scarlett a portion of the Squa Sachem lands (in 1639 she had deeded some of her lands to the town of Charlestown and by her will bequeathed all her property to certain prominent citizens, among whom were Gov. John Winthrop and Edward Gibbons). Gibbons' land on the west side of Mysticke Pond was leased to Thomas Gleason. Soon after the lease was made a question arose as to the rightful ownership and in Mar. 1662 the town instituted a suit against Thomas Gleason to obtain possession. All his resources were swallowed up in the litigation and the case was unsettled when he died in Cambridge in the spring of 1686. He married in England Susanna Page (See page 91) She died in Boston, Mass. Jan. 24, 1691.

2. WILLIAM GLEASON

Born Cambridge, Mass. 1655, died Cambridge Jan. 14, 1690/1. Married Abiel (Abiah, Abijah) Bartlett. (See page 91) William Gleason was a soldier in King Philip's War and on June 24, 1676 is credited with L 2 14s. He served under Capt. Nathaniel Davenport and Capt. Ting. His name appears on the returns dated Nov. 25 to Dec. 3, 1675. He was also a soldier in the French and Indian Wars, accredited to Cambridge. Administration on his estate was granted to Abiel Gleason April 6, 1691. The inventory of his estate is interesting, listing such items as:

"His waring clothes, One bras ketell and one skilit, One oyron pot, One gun and sword, whol chairs and lumber, One pistoll & mortar" and many others.

Feb. 15, 1704/5 Hannah Woolworth, dau. of Richard and Hannah Huggins Woolworth of Suffield (see page 91 & 92). She was born Newbury, Mass. Feb. 10, 1681, died Enfield Jan. 1757. John Gleason's name appears frequently in the Enfield, Conn. town records, items referring to the acquisition and disposal of land and to various minor appointments, etc. About 1689 he erected a hut near Forge Mill Pond; in 1709/10 he was chosen a surveyor of country and town highways; in 1714 he was chosen to "Inspect ye Disorder among ye children in ye Lower part of the Meeting house on ye Sabbath".

4. JOHN GLEASON

Born Enfield, Conn. June 13, 1706. Married Sarah Robins, intention of marriage listed in Enfield, Jan. 8, 1725/6. (See page 93). John Gleason's name appears several times in the Enfield, Conn. town records between 1723 and 1756, though possibly some of the later records may refer to his son, John. A land record of 1729 calls him a laborer. His mother's will, dated Dec. 30, 1756, refers to him as of Granville (Mass.), as does a land record of Apr. 1757. When he left Enfield is not known, nor have the dates and places of death for him and his wife been discovered. Their deaths are not recorded in Granville vital records.

5. ARIEL GLEASON

Born Enfield, Conn. Jan. 24, 1743/4. Married Tyringham, Mass. Apr. 4, 1765 Lucy Green (See page 93). She was prob. born 1744 or 45, assuming that she was the Mrs. Gleason aged 64 who died in Salisbury, Conn. Oct. 23, 1809, having cut her throat in a fit of insanity. She may have been living there with her son, Rufus, who was the only other Gleason listed in the Salisbury church record of the period. If so, Ariel had probably died earlier. I find no record of Ariel between the marriage in 1765 and Jan. 1772 when he purchased land in Canaan, Conn., in which he is called of Canaan. The 1790 Census lists him in Litchfield, Conn., his household consisting of two males 16 or over, 2 males under 16, and 4 females. This, as well as the wide spacing of dates between the marriage and births of the older sons, suggest that there may have been daughters in the family whose names are not known. The name Ariel Gleason appears in land transactions in Sheffield and New Marlboro, Mass. in 1804, but this was possibly the son. A grandson of Elijah Gleason reported that his mother told that she recalled hearing that her grandfather (Ariel Gleason) lived near the Conn.-Mass. line with a home in one state and a flour mill in the other. No further information about Ariel Gleason has been discovered.

- (1) Rufus b. ab. 1769 m. 1796 Miriam Granger, dau. of Phinehas and Elizabeth Hall Granger. She was b. Suffield, Conn. May 27, 1776. The 1790 Census lists Rufus Gleason as head of a family in Litchfield, one male over 16 and 2 females. (Does this suggest a previous marriage or is this another Rufus?) He died Apr. 7, 1810 aged 41 of consumption. (Salisbury Church Record)
- (2) Enoch b. Aug. 1, 1774 Mass. d. Feb. 19, 1832 Ohio. m Sheffield, Mass. Mar. 3, 1796 Lovina Foskit, possibly dau. or sister of Ephraim Foskit. (In 1836 Milo, Ariel, Ephraim, Almon, and Henry Gleason and Ebenezer and Sally Adams and Wm. and Lovina Cole (children of Enoch and Lovina Foskit Gleason) quit claimed their interest in the estate of Ephraim Foskit of West Stockbridge, Mass. to Nathaniel Foskit.) Since the Gleason Genealogy does not give the children of Enoch and Lovina Foskit Gleason, the complete list is included here, having been supplied by Mrs. John J. Gleason of Chagrin Falls, Ohio, who is doing research on this line. (1) Milo, b. Mar. 22, 1797 (2) Ariel b. Apr. 21, 1799 (3) Ephraim b. Feb. 7, 1802 (4) Almon b. Aug. 10, 1804 (5) Wm. b. GLEASON WIVES

SUSANNA, WIFE OF THOMAS GLEASON

The Gleason Genealogy and The Old Northwest Genealogical Quarterly give Susanna Page as the wife of Thomas Gleason. Possibly the identification of Susanna as a Page is based on an item in the will of William Page, son of John and Phebe Page of Watertown. As given in Bond's "Genealogies of the Families and Descendants of the Early Settlers of Watertown, Mass.": William Page died Dec. 9, 1664, leaving a wife Hannah (or Anna) and no children. His will, proved Apr. 4, 1665, makes small bequests to all his kinsmen in New Eng., mentions his "kinsman Thos. Leason" and leaves to his kinsman William Leason, then living with him 10 at the age of 22 years. I have found no record which indicates the relationship; Susanna is not listed as a child of John and Phebe Page (parents of Wm. above) in any record that I have found. Hannah, widow of William Page, married (2) before June 22, 1669 Nicholas Wood of Boggestow and (3) Edward Winn of Woburn. Her will, proved Nov. 1, 1686, gave bequests to brother-in-law Gleason and kinsmen Thomas, Joseph, John, Philip, Isaac, William, Mary, and Anne Gleason. (These are all the children of Thomas and Susanna Gleason living at the time, Nathaniel having been killed in 1676.) Unless there is other evidence which identifies Susanna as a Page, one might consider the possibility that it was William Page's wife Hannah who was related, either to Susanna or to Thomas. The term brother-in-law did not always indicate the same relationship we understand today, and could have meant a half brother or step brother. Whatever the significance of these documents, Susanna's parentage does not seem to have been established, though she may have been a Page.

ABIEL, WIFE OF WILLIAM GLEASON

The Gleason Genealogy gives Abiel Bartlett as the wife of William Gleason, and states that she was probably born May 28, 1651. In different records the name is also given as Abiah and Abijah. According to Bond's History of Watertown the Abiah Bartlett born on this date was daughter of Ens. Thomas and Hannah Bartlett, and married 1669 Jonathan Sanderson and is buried with him. This leaves William's wife Abiel unidentified. I have not discovered the evidence that indicates that she was a Bartlett.

HANNAH WOOLWORTH, WIFE OF JOHN GLEASON

1. RICHARD WOOLWORTH

The name is given in various records as Wooley and Woolery as well as Woolworth. He came to Newbury, Mass. in 1678, having taken the oath of allegiance in Ipswich, and was then 30 years old. His business had been that of weaver for the "King's Bench". He received a grant of land in Southold (afterwards Suffield) in 1680 on Stoney Brook, and later other grants. The Woolworth Genealogy, on the basis of data taken from the New Eng. Gen. & Antiquarian Reg. suggests a possible connection between Richard Woolworth and a Richard Wooley, 35 years of age, a passenger on the "Plain Jane", which sailed from Gravesend, Eng. and arrived in Virginia May 15, 1635. It is stated that permission for sailing to Virginia being easier to obtain, many New Eng. settlers arrived in Virginia first. Richard Woolworth married in Newbury, Mass. Dec. 24, 1678 Hannah Huggins, dau. of John and Bridget Huggins of Hampton, N. H. (See below.) He died in Suffield Dec. 21, 1696. The daughter, Hannah, being 15 years of age, was allowed to administer on her father's estate. Hannah Huggins was born in Hampton Mar. 15, 1658 and died July 30, 1691.

HANNAH HUGGINS, WIFE OF RICHARD WOOLWORTH

1. JOHN HUGGINS

He was prob. the John Huggins who was in Dedham, Mass. 1635-9; very active in town affairs until 1639, in which year he sold land there. Soon after his name appears in the records of Hampton, N.H., where he lived until his death June 6, 1670 aged ab. 61. He married Bridget -----, prob. b. ab. 1615 (listed as aged 44 in 1659) She m. (2) John Clifford, *Apr. 6, 1671. Her will is dated Sept. 1, 1679, proved Aug. 26, 1680.

- (1) Susannah bap. Sept. 6, 1640 m. ab. 1667 Charles Allen of the parish of Greenland in Portsmouth

- (4) John b. ab. 1652 m. Oct. 19, 1681 Hannah Burckley (*Burpee) She d. May 3, 1683 m. (2) Experience Jones Feb. 4, 1684. He d. Springfield July 9, 1704
- (5) Martha b. Nov. 11, 1654 *Married ----- Mitchell
- (6) Hannah (or Anna) b. Mar. 15, 1658 m. Dec. 24, 1678 Richard Woolworth b. ab. 1658 d. Suffield, Conn. Dec. 21, 1696. She d. Suffield July 30, 1691.
- (7) Nathaniel b. July 15, 1660 m. (1) Judith (2) Sarah (* (1) Sarah Haines (2) Judith ---- Berry, wid., Dec. 10, 1716. He d. Nov. 28, 1744).

Mr. J. F. Morton, who did considerable research on the Huggins family, and a correspondent to the Boston Transcript or Hartford Times Genealogical Dept. add to this family:

- (8) Esther b. ab. 1643 died Mar. 7, 1697-8 m. Oct. 19, 1664 at Rowley, Mass. Anthony Austin.

The item states that John Huggins' will, proved Oct. 11, 1670 names only his son John, but refers to his younger children and to those who had not received their portions. It states that John Huggins, Jr., Richard Woolworth, and Anthony Austin all removed to Suffield, Conn. ab. the same time and had contiguous grants, a fact which would seem to indicate the relationship that John Huggins of Hampton seems to have been the only Huggins immigrant to New. Eng. who raised a family.

Mr. Morton also added:

(9) Elizabeth m. Nov. 28, 1676 Timothy Palmer, and died Oct. 1716

SARAH ROBINS, WIFE OF JOHN GLEASON

No record of Sarah Robins has been found except that of intention of marriage to John Gleason Jan. 8, 1725/6 in Enfield, Conn. and her name listed in the birth records of the children in Enfield. No record has been found of the death of John or of Sarah, so no data has been gleaned from that source. Though Conn. vital records have been searched and the many Robbins genealogies, as well as town histories of the vicinity, no even tentative identification has been made. No possible Sarah Robbins, even a widow Sarah Robbins, seems to be available.

LUCY GREEN, WIFE OF ARIEL GLEASON

Extensive search for the parentage of Lucy Green, wife of Ariel Gleason, has been made in printed records and in land and probate records of Berkshire Co., Mass. and of Litchfield Co., Conn. If Lucy Green Gleason was the Mrs. Gleason aged 64 who died in Salisbury, Conn. Oct. 23, 1809, having cut her throat in a fit of insanity, as seems most likely, she must have been born ab. 1744 or 45. The marriage of Ariel Gleason and Lucy Green is given in the Tyringham, Mass. Vital Records Apr. 4, 1765. These are the only references to her that have been found. Since published vital records for many of the towns involved in possible leads are not available, it has been difficult to check. Jonathan Green from Westborough, Mass. and Joshua Green evidently had land in Tyringham during this period, both being original proprietors, but there seems to be no similarity between names of the children of Jonathan and Joshua Green and those of Ariel and Lucy Green Gleason, and evidently no daughter Lucy. Mr. J. F. Morton, who was doing research on these same Gleasons and their wives, inclined to the idea that she might be identified with Lucy, dau. of Israel and Mary Holden Green, born Leicester, Mass. Nov. 29, 1743, or Lucy, dau. of Amos and Lydia Johnson Green, born Jan. 17, 1744/5 Killingly, Conn., or that she might be a granddaughter of Jacob and Elizabeth Reed Green of Norwalk, Conn., possibly a daughter of their son Elijah, whose family is not known, thus accounting for the name Elijah, son of Ariel and Lucy Green Gleason. I have not, however, been able to connect these families with Berkshire Co., Mass. where Ariel and Lucy Green Gleason were married. Several other Greens were in Berkshire Co., Mass. and in Canaan, Conn. where Ariel Gleason settled, but investigation of these families has not led to our Lucy.

ANCESTRY OF CYNTHIA JOHNSON, FIRST WIFE OF ELIJAH GLEASON

1. JARED JOHNSON

Born ab. 1755 or 56, died Nov. 4, 1825 "in the 70th year of his age". Buried Brush Hill Cemetery, Sheffield, Conn. with wife and daughter, Electa Kingman. Married Rebecca -----, born ab. 1759 in Rhode Island. She died Jan. 30, 1854 "in the 95th year of her age". I found no will or administration for Jared Johnson. The administration on Rebecca Johnson's estate was dated May 5, 1858, administrators Jared Johnson, Oliver Peck, and Constant Southworth. Listed as only heirs were Jared, Billings, Loren L. Johnson, Lydia Melius, and Clarissa Chapman. Both Cynthia Gleason and Electa Kingman had died previously.

Land records in the Registry of Deeds, Great Barrington, Mass. give some interesting information about the Johnsons. In 1817 Jared Johnson of Sheffield sold to John Chapman (his son-in-law) for $1200 land on Brush Hill, "always reserving to self and heirs the foregoing described premises unless John Chapman or heirs shall support self and wife Rebecca and son Truman in honorable manner agreeable to my present situation in life through our natural lives and not cause either of us to be removed from the premises as long as we may live unless by our consent, and discharge all demands that may hereafter arise against me or my wife or son above described." In 1823 John Chapman of Sheffield sold this same land, about 40 acres, in the easterly part of Sheffield on Brush Hill, to Jared Johnson, yeoman, of Sheffield for $1000. Apparently he wanted to be released from the previous bargain, as it was probably about this time that John and Clarissa Johnson Chapman went to Harpersfield, Ashtabula Co., Ohio. In 1824 Jared Johnson sold to Jared Johnson, Jr. for $700 "the farm that he then lived on in the eastern part of Sheffield about 30 acres with house and barn. Jared Johnson to well and faithfully support him and Rebecca his wife, also supplying nursing and medical assistance". (At this time, as indicated by old letters in the family, Jared, the father, was dying of a cancer of the face.) Jared, Jr. renewed the mortgage and agreed to support his father and mother, and supply a room in the house for his sister Electa. In this agreement there is no mention of the son Truman.

Will Gleason, youngest son of Elijah Gleason and his second wife, Betsey Davis, had several letters written to Elijah and Cynthia Gleason and to Cynthia Gleason and Clarissa Chapman in 1824 and 1827 by Loren L. and Almira Johnson and by Electa Johnson Kingman. These tell in detail of the health of their father Jared who was suffering from a cancer on his face, tell of all the brothers and sisters, and express great concern for the spiritual welfare of all the family.

I do not find Jared Johnson listed at all in the 1790 census. He is listed in the 1800 census in Sheffield, Mass., his family consisting of 2 males and 2 females 45 and over, 1 male and 1 female 26-45, 1 female 16-26, 1 female 10-16, and 1 male under 10. The fact that there were four in the household over 45 suggests that parents or other relatives lived with them. This listing does not fit data on the family obtained from various other sources. The order of births for the children is not known.

- (1) CYNTHIA born prob. ab. 1780 or not long after this (Her age was given in the 1830 census, Harpersfield, Ohio as between 40 and 50, and she was married by 1800 (or before). Married Elijah Gleason, son of Ariel and Lucy Green Gleason (See page 2).
- (2) Lydia m. Peter Melius. No data except that in family letters - Living in Bradford, Pa. in 1824 and in Hudson, N. Y. in 1827. "another daughter" born May 7, 1823. Not known whether there were other children. Living in 1858.

- (3) Billings b. ab. 1785 or 86 Mass. The 1850 census Lenox, Mass. lists him as 64 years old, his wife Elizabeth as 57, and gives the following children: Norman S. 26, and Edson C. 29, Martha 24, Elizabeth 19, Billings 16, and Harriet 12. Living in 1858.
- (4) Clarissa b. June 24, 1788 d. July 1865 Ohio m. 1804 John Chapman. Had a son Dennis, and possibly daus. Samantha and Emily, who are listed also as coming from Sheffield, Mass. to Harpersfield, Ohio in 1823.
- (5) Electa b. July 24, 1791 d. Aug. 20, 1842, bu. with parents in Brush Hill Cem. Sheffield, Mass. m. ---- Kingman, who was apparently dead by May 1824 when she and dau. Emeline were evidently living in her father's home
- (6) Loren L. m. Almira -----, possibly after the Gleasons had moved to Ohio as a letter from her to them in 1824 states that she had never met them. Letters indicate that he had done much traveling around, was in Utica in 1823, in Lenox, Mass. 1824, in Hudson 1827. No information about his family except that a child died Sept. 1823 at 10 months of age. Living in 1858.
- (7) Jared The 1850 census lists him as 38, apparently an error or a mistake in copying, as in 1824 his father sold him his farm with the understanding that he should support him, rather unlikely that he would have been only twelve years old at the time. His wife Eleanor is listed as 38, and the following children are given: Agnes A. 20, Edgar M. 18, Edwin L. 13, Mary E. 6. His mother, Rebecca, aged 90 is listed in his household. He was in Egremont in 1827, Sheffield 1850 and 1858, and died in Great Barrington Aug. 26, 1863, his wife having preceded him. The heirs named in the adm. of his estate are Agnes Strickland of Otis, Mary E. Smith of Great Barrington (whose son DeWitt was living in Sheffield in the 1830s), Edwin L. Johnson of Columbus, and J. Howard and Burton L. Johnson, sons of his deceased son Edgar M. Johnson of Columbus.
- (8) Truman Mentioned in an 1817 agreement between his father and John Chapman (husband of Clarissa) in which John Chapman was to support Jared, his wife and his son Truman. It would appear that Truman was then very young, handicapped, or incompetent. He evidently died soon after, as he is not mentioned in a later similar agreement with Jared, Jr. in 1824, nor is he mentioned in a letter of 1824 in which all other members of the family are mentioned. There is no stone for him in the cemetery where the father, mother, and sister are buried.

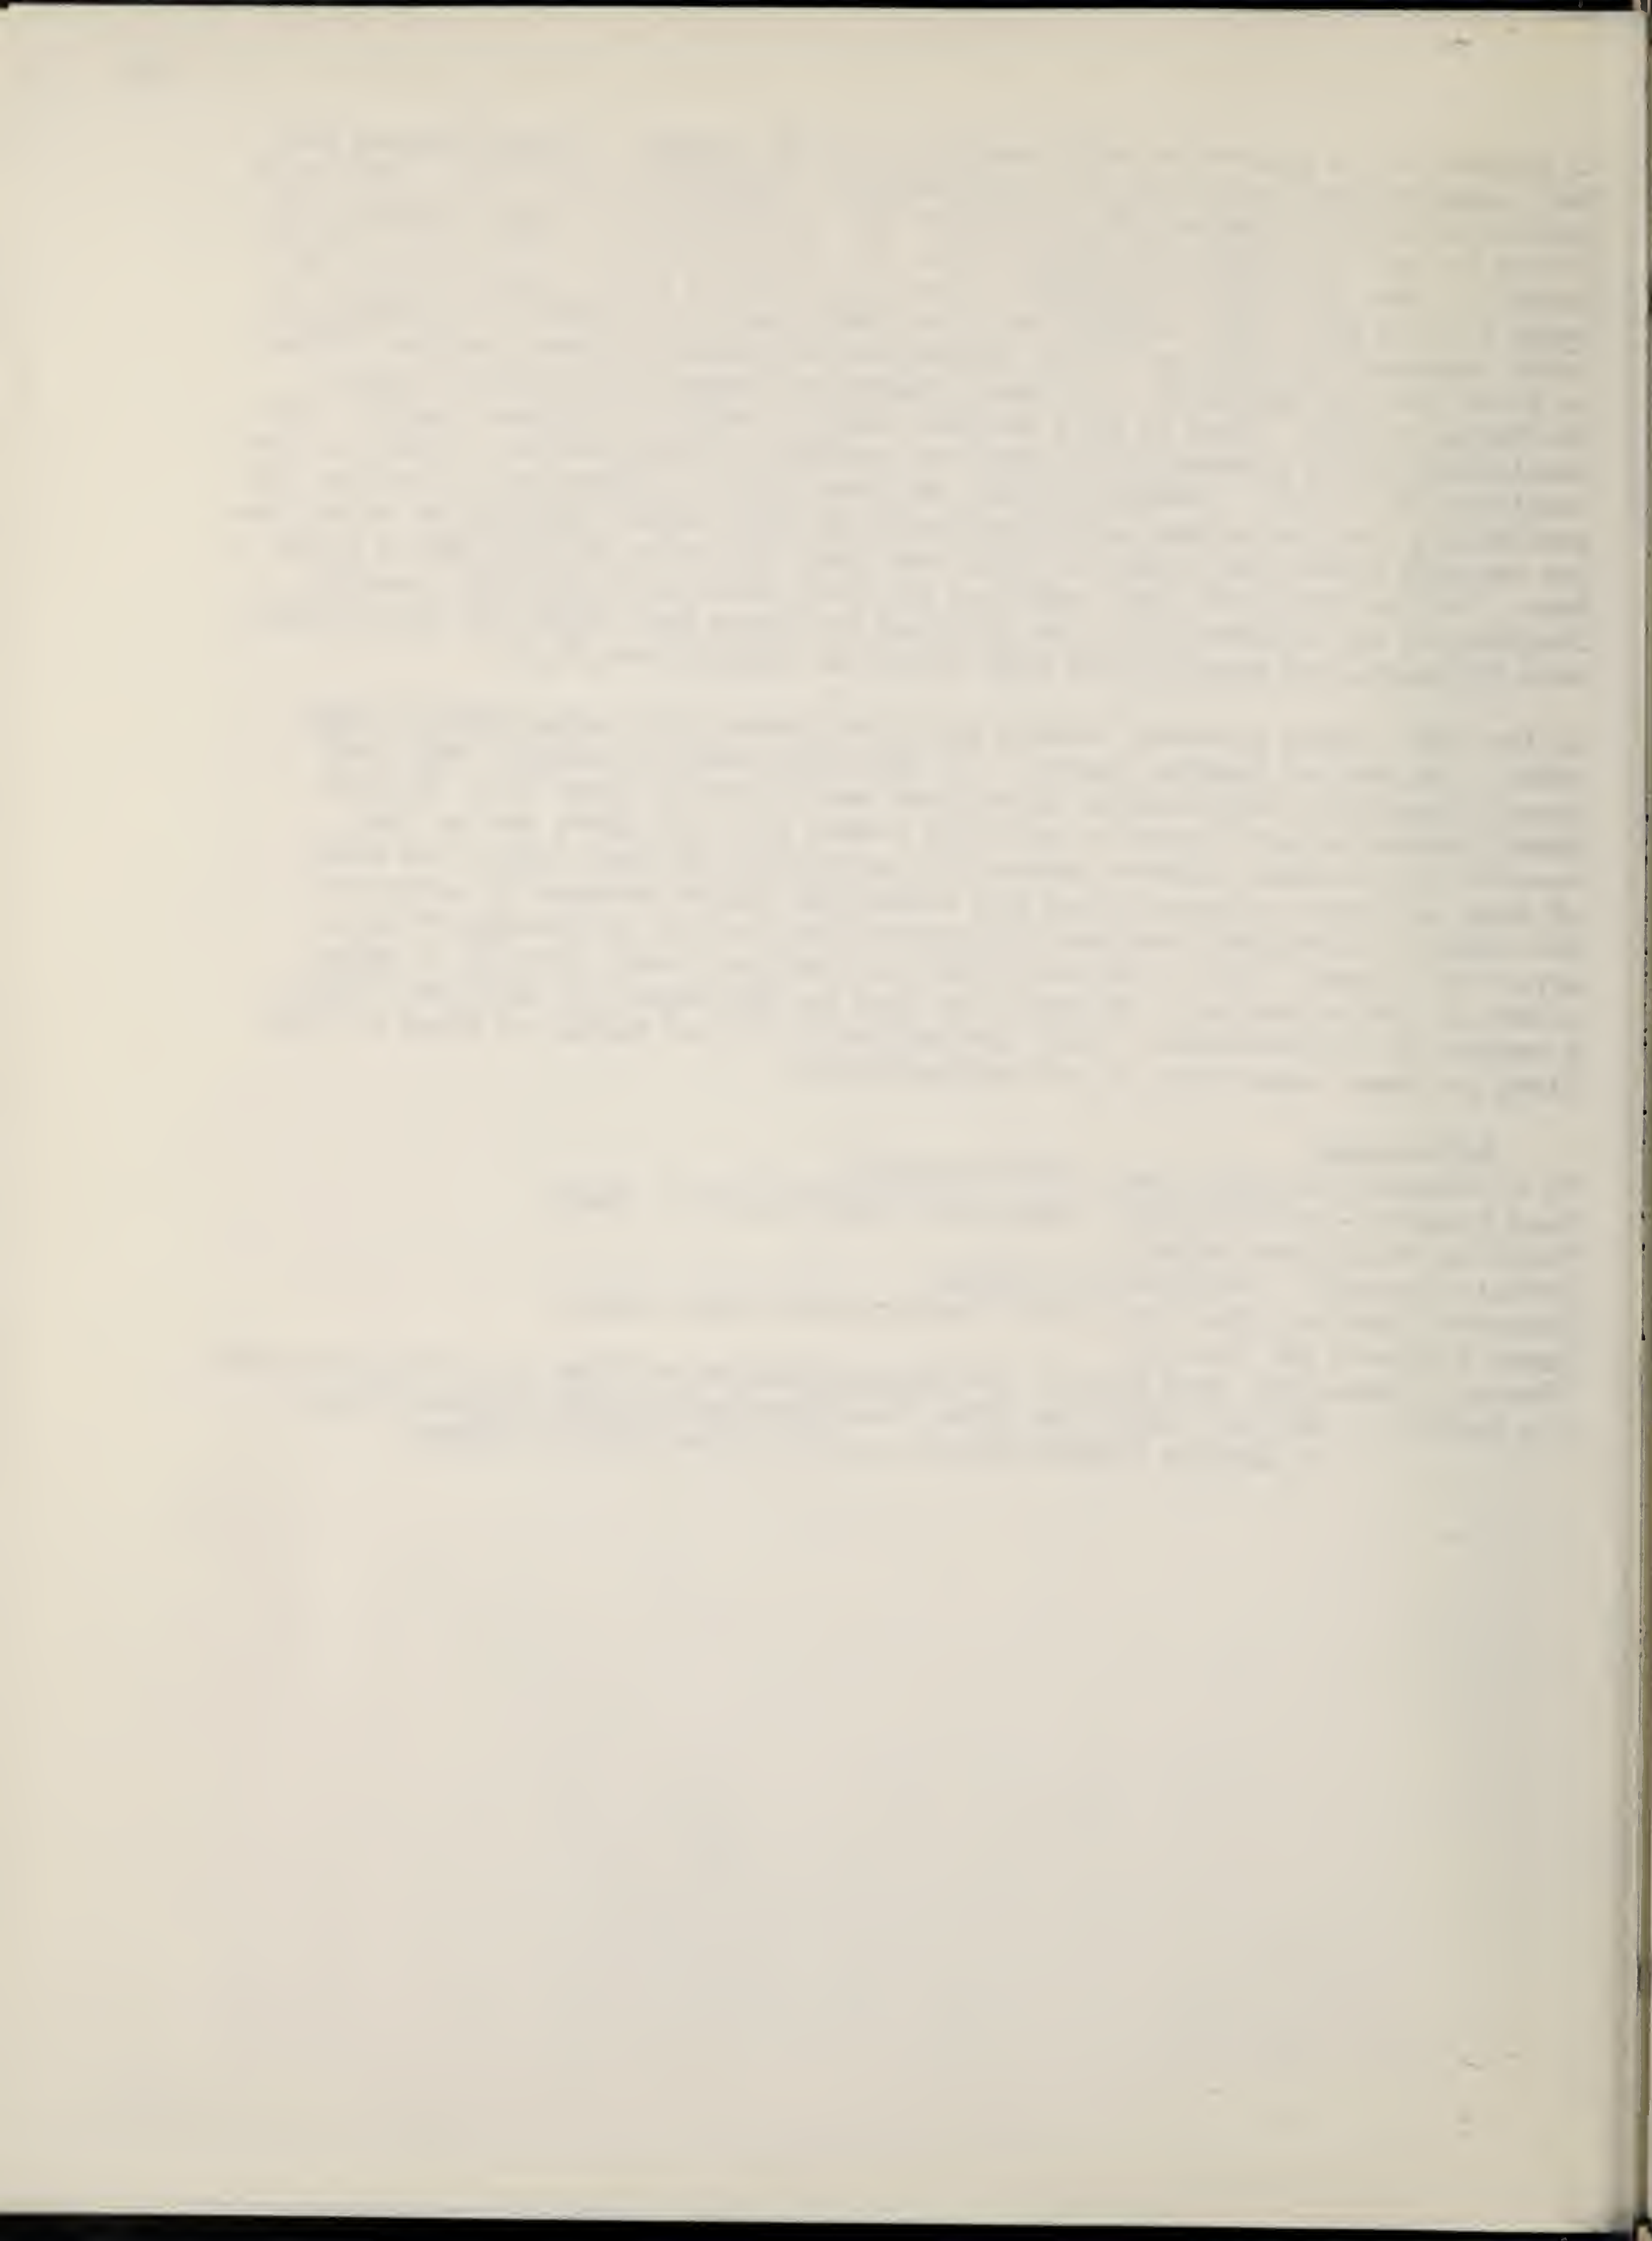

Considerable effort has been made to continue the line backward from Jared Johnson, and to identify his wife Rebecca, but without success. Billings as a given name for the son suggests a family name, but I have been unable to find a Billings connection. The 1850 census lists Rebecca as aged 90 and R. I. as her birthplace. I have checked all the Rebeccas of this period in the published vital records of R. I. but have not been able to make an identification. Billings as a given name appears frequently in the vital records of Washington Co. There were a number of Johnsons in Sheffield, Mass. in the period of Jared's lifetime, Obadiah, Jacob, Daniel, David, Joseph, Broughton, Jeremiah, and John, but I have been unable to determine any relationship to Jared from land or probate records. Land records show that Jared Johnson and John Johnson had property on Brush Hill in Sheffield, John Johnson having purchased in 1791 and 92, but I found no record of purchase or inheritance by Jared. The 1790 census lists Jeremiah, John, Obadiah, and Jacob Johnson but no Jared. In fact Jared Johnson is not listed at all in the 1790 census. A John Johnson served in the Rev. War from Sheffield, aged 35 in 1778. There is no record of service for Jared. Jared and Rebecca Johnson are buried in Brush Hill Cemetery, Sheffield. Buried near them are John and Catherine Johnson and their son and grandson and wives, Joseph and Susanna Johnson and Harvey and Mary M. Johnson. John Johnson died June 26, 1823 aged 86, his wife Nov. 9, 1822 aged 75. This checks well with the John Johnson who served in the Rev. War. This data is suggestive in connection with some R. I. vital records. Joseph Johnson and Mary Lanphere were mar. June 18, 1739 Westerly, Washington Co., R. I. Listed in Charlestown, R. I. (formed from Westerly) are 7 children of Joseph Johnson: (1) Joseph b. Apr. 17, 1740, (2) John b. Jan. 23, 1743 (3) Mary b. Feb. 13, 1745 (4) Manuel b. Feb. 3, 1746 (5) Michael b. Apr. 6, 1752 (6) Job b. Mar. 2, 1755 (7) Jared b. July 29, 1757. It will be noted that there is a close relationship of dates between this John and Jared Johnson and the John and Jared Johnson buried on Brush Hill in Sheffield. A Joseph Johnson of Canaan, Conn bought land in Sheffield in 1771. Here we find another name of the R. I. Johnson family. This identification is a possibility only, and nothing further has been found to substantiate it. Since Rebecca Johnson was born in R. I. there is, of course, the possibility that Jared was also born there (he died before the date at which census records listed the state of birth) and that they were married before going to Mass., but no record of their marriage has been found in R. I. Vital records. Considering all information, I am inclined to assume that Jared and John Johnson were brothers, and possibly the ones listed in Charlestown, R. I.

In the 1790 census Jeremiah Johnson and John Johnson are listed next to each other. In view of several facts - (1) that land records indicate that both Jared Johnson and John Johnson lived near each other on Brush Hill (2) that Jared Johnson is not listed in any 1790 census (3) that there are no land records for Jeremiah Johnson except for acquisition of land (about the time of John Johnson's purchase) land not described, and no records of purchase for Jared - I consider the possibility that the listing of "Jeremiah" is an error for "Jared". The Jeremiah Johnson listed has 1 male over 16, 2 males under 16, and 4 females. He could not then be the father of Jared with Jared a member of his household. This listing could fit the family of Jared at that time, at least known data is not contradictory.
